

U.S./Canada border into the United States. His criminal record includes a previous charge in this Court for alien smuggling. Defendant's criminal record also includes multiples instances of failure to report for hearing, failure to report for trial, failure to report for supervision, failure to comply with conditions of supervision, and new offenses while on supervision. There are active warrants relating to failures to appear for court hearings. Defendant has been unemployed for several years. Although he reported currently living with his girlfriend and her mother, the girlfriend confirmed that the defendant had not yet moved in. While the girlfriend indicated that it was acceptable for Mr. Ramirez to reside in the home, Pretrial Services was not able to contact the mother in time to confirm her agreement that Mr. Ramirez could live with them. Accordingly, defendant has not yet presented a verified release plan.

- 2. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance based on pending charges with active warrants, a history of failure to appear, criminal activity and other noncompliance while on supervision, an unstable and not fully verified living situation, substance abuse and mental health history, and lack of employment. Defendant poses a risk of danger based on a pattern of similar criminal history, criminal activity and other noncompliance while on supervision, and substance abuse history.
- 3. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community. However, if Defendant is able to put together a verified release plan, he may ask the Court to revisit the question of detention.
- 21 It is therefore ORDERED:
